THOMAS CROGER'S NEW PATENT IMPROVED ÆOLIAN HARP

Will produce music in the garden, conservatory, summer house, on the balcony or window ledge of the nursery, or on board any vessel on the water, or on the branches of a tree, &c., without a performer. It merely requires placing on a table or stand, or laying across the branches of a tree, or it may be suspended from one, or from any convenient place. It does not signify whether it is placed perpendicular, horizontal, or diagonally; the object is to cause the draught to pass through where the strings are, which will set them in vibration, and bring forth the most melodious sounds ever heard. At a distance the tones are truly delightful; and what renders it so amusing is, that any one not being aware of its position cannot trace from whence it proceeds; the effect is so peculiar, it seems to be in every direction at once. All persons are sure to be surprised and delighted at the romantic effect; it may be used by any one totally unacquainted with music; and will produce an endless source of amusement by its various sounds. Full instruction is attached to each one in such a way that it cannot be damaged or removed. Prices 14s., 16s., 18s., 20s., 22s., 24s., 28s., 32s., and 36s., according to the number of strings and finish.

THE NEW PATENT EDUCATIONAL TRANS-POSING METALLIC HARMONICON, 2 Octaves, with Semitones, 15s., 20s., 30s., and 65s.; 2½ Octaves, 18s., 25s., 35s., and 73s. 6d.; 3 Octaves, 21s., 30s., 40s., and 84s. They are all of the same quality of tone; it is the finish of the case which makes the difference in the prices of the same size. A very handsome book of instruction is sent with each one. The notes cannot be put out of tune or broken. Illustrations and testimonials post-free. With respect to the utility and advantages of this instrument, see editorial notice of the Musical Times, April 1st, 1861.

C.'s newly-arranged Price List, for Notes, Keys, and every article for Harmonium making; Cornopeons, Sax Horns, Bugles, Drums, Fifes, Piccolos, Concertinas, Harmoniums, Organettes, Organ Accordeons, The Patent Folding Harmonium, Violins, and Musical Instruments of every description, may be had on application as above.

THE ORCHESTRA FOR THE HANDEL FESTIVAL, 1862.

The Offices at the Crystal Palace and at Exeter Hall will be opened for the Registry of Applications for Tickets on Monday, March 3rd, 1862.

NOTE.—Persons preferring seats in any particular block are recommended to apply for them as early as possible after the opening of the Subscription Books on the 3rd of March. Even the Crystal Palace, with its vast space, has limits of accommodation which cannot be exceeded. This caution is the more requisite because of the large increase to the number of visitors to London for the International Exhibition—which at the time of the Festival will be in full operation—coupled with the great number of names already registered, as applicants for the earliest intimation of the issue of tickets.

FOUR THOUSAND PERFORMERS,

And it is confidently affirmed that this Festival will be by far the most Complete and Magnificent Musical Display ever witnessed.
